

THE DIAMOND.

The Home Team Drubs the Swell-heads From "Ole Kentucky."

The Lucas Nine Shut Out in New York
—Cincinnati Defeats the Athletics
—Results of Other Games.

Owing to the counter attractions the attendance at the Seventh Street Park yesterday afternoon was rather small but about 500 people saw the Louisville barely escape a whitewash at the hands of the home team. The visitors left the "Invincible" Hecker at home and in his stead brought Mayes, one of their alleged phenomena. They also presented a new catcher, named Harmon, who, judging from his work yesterday, will not remain with Louisville very long. McKean and Keenan did the battery work for the home team, and while the former was batted safe nearly as many times as the visiting twirlers, the Kentucky men could not bunt their hits, and six of them struck out. Larry's support in the field was faultless until the ninth inning, when Poorman scored the first and only run after playing a most brilliant game. Poorman's work was simply wonderful, he making some of the most difficult running catches and stops of the season. He not only acquitted himself with credit in the field but used the willow very effectively, scoring a home run, the result of a ball knocked over the left field fence. The visitors' fielding was wretched, allowing the home team to score seven unearned runs. The features of the game were the field and stick work of Poorman and Miller's stop of a line hit by McKean's bat in the sixth inning.

The home team won the toss and took the field. The visitors scored two of their hits in the first but they availed them nothing. The home team practically won the game in their half, and the indications were that it would be an old-time, one-sided slugging match, for the local ones scored over one-half the hits which they are credited in this inning. Donnelly was given a base on balls. Poorman came to the bat and Mayes pitched a slow one over the plate and then turned around to watch the leather whirl over the left field fence. Thompson's base on balls, singles by Collins and Moriarty and doubles by Crane and McQuerry brought in four more, and three came in in the second on hits by Thompson, Poorman and Moriarty and two tamed balls. Mayes then batted up, and during the remainder of the game but a single hit was secured off his delivery, although he sent several men to base on balls. In the fifth the local ones scored on Collins' base on balls, Miller's error and a passed ball, to the sixth they scored their last run on errors by Keenan and Miller and Thompson's error. Everybody was satisfied that the visitors would be shut out, but in the ninth inning Mayes pitched a ball that would have been good for but one base had not Poorman allowed it to get by him. As it was the runner went to third and McKean's safe one in center enabled him to cross the plate. Following is the Poor Lucas.

New York, May 25.—The New Yorks took the St. Louis into camp again to-day, and with ease. The local club batting was tremendous. Keefe started in to pitch for New York, but his arm troubled him after two innings and he gave way to young Richardson. The visitors made one hit off Keefe and six off Richardson. Dunlap played a great game at second base. Lewis did splendidly at center field. Ward, with a lame foot, made a two-baser. Only about 2,000 people went to the match. Score:
New York..... 2 0 2 1 2 3 1 0-11
St. Louis..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

Buffalo Lost in the Eighth Inning.
PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—Five thousand people witnessed the game to-day between the Philadelphia and Buffalo clubs. The Bisons outbatted and outfielded the home players, but lost the game by bunching their errors in the eighth inning when they had victory almost won. In that inning men throw by Horne and Galvin, a dropped down ball by Meyers, and a three bagger by Mulvey yielded the Philadelphia three runs. The visitors scored three runs in the first inning on two singles and Rowe's three bagger. And two more in the third inning. The fielding was superb on both sides. The errors of Meyers, the Buffalo catcher, were very costly, giving the home club four of their seven runs. Score:
Buffalo..... 3 0 2 1 0 0 0 0-7
Philadelphia..... 1 0 0 1 0 2 0 0-6

Boston Was Whittawashed.
BOSTON, May 25.—The Chicago team made its first appearance here to-day this season, defeating the Boston by a score of one to nothing. The visitors were retired without a run for the first three innings, and in the fourth a base hit by Kelly and a double by Carson and Williamson saved an earned run, the only run on either side during the game. The home club was disposed of in regular order until the sixth inning, when Morrill took first on balls, second on Manning's single, third on Horning's out, and was left by Whitney's long fly to Dalrymple, the latter throwing Manning out at second. Dooley distinguished himself by taking four fouls from the bat and otherwise playing a perfect game. Attendance nearly 3,000.

Baltimore Lost at Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 25.—The Baltimore lost another game to the home club to-day. Mountain, who has been laid up with a sore arm, pitched his second game this season, and was effective, but weary. The feature of the game was fine field work of the home team. Two thousand people were present.
Pittsburgh..... 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0-2
Baltimore..... 0 1 0 0 0 0 2 0-3

Unable to Hit Shallick.
CINCINNATI, May 25.—The Athletics were unable to hit Shallick effectively to-day and lost the game.

"Hazel KIRK'S" AT ENGLISH'S.
English's Opera House has been crowded more than once this season, but never so completely packed as last night. At 9 o'clock the doors were closed, as no more people could be accommodated, and the lobby of the Opera House was thronged with many disappointed lovers of amusement. The audience throughout were warmly enthusiastic, applauding each and every hit made during the run of the comedy. Mr. John Ince as "Adolphus Pop" was exoneratingly humorous, making many happy hits. Mr. Charles Harris as "Anthony Belzize" played the character in great style. Mr. Grinnel as "Charles Page," an Englishman, was excellent; Fred Meyer as "Jem Smart," a doubtful character, did some clever acting. Hattie Starr as "Sophia Belzize," a Southern belle, held the mirror up to a satire in playing her part so perfectly. Miss Jennie Dunn, Miss Ella Gardner, Miss Emma Jones and Walter Arthur Dean, the rest of the support, were very good in the parts assigned them. The scenery, the music and costumes help to make this sparkling comedy a great one. Well-wishers to the early to the performances, as the crowds during the week will be large. "A box of candy" given to every lady and child attending the matinee this afternoon. The afternoon matinee a box of candy will be presented to every lady and child in the house.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
The standing room sign was again displayed at an early hour last evening at the Grand Opera House. The counter attraction, Forepaugh's circus, did not prevent a large and appreciative audience from attending to witness the rendition of "Hazel KIRK" by the Diamond Dramatic Company, Miss Helen Desmond in the title role. There have been more pretentious companies here during the season just past, but we were safe in saying that the character of Hazel has seldom been rendered in a more acceptable manner. Miss Desmond, although but a short time before the public, has achieved a success very flattering to her as an artist. She has a fine stage presence, pleasing and graceful manners and is a finished elocutionist with the character of Hazel. Her well supported by her excellent company. The scenery and stage settings are worthy of special mention. The advance sale for this attraction was very large, it being nearly three times as much as the character of Hazel has seldom been rendered in a more acceptable manner. THE DIME MUSEUM.
To use a street phrase, a circus generally knocks all other shows out, but there are exceptions to the rule, and such was the case yesterday when the Dime Museum, with Drew, Sackett & Co.'s Madison Min. and other strong cards, held its own against the Forepaugh show, and drew large crowds both in the afternoon and evening. This was Manager Sackett's first venture in the minstrel line, but his effort was eminently satisfactory. The troupe includes a fine array of talent, and the performance presented is as good as is often given on any stage. The company is large and well selected in all respects, and the audience last night applauded each act in a laudatory manner. The songs introduced were splendidly rendered, and the comedy element was clean, strong and richly enjoyed. Alf Barker, George Rice, Ed French, Paul Le Folie, Charles Barton and Billy Dayton were on the ends and kept the audience in the best possible humor, while the singing of the entire company was exceptionally good. In addition to the minstrel part of the programme a number of specialty acts were introduced and well received. Miss St. George, Housley is probably the best Irish male impersonator on the stage, and some of her characterizations are very fine indeed. Frank Lewis the noted topical vocalist, has a splendid voice, and his selections were good. Alf Barker's imitations of Pat Rooney created much amusement, and the negro sketch by Golden and Drayton was above the usual standard. "Silence and Civil Service," a new act, was presented by Paul LeFolier, and the sketch, "A Lawyer in Search of Clients," the conveyance, was very laughable. Altogether the bill is a fine one, and Manager Sackett should congratulate himself on securing such a list of pleasing attractions. The features in Curiosity Hall are weird and attractive. Professor C. E. Chester's Golden Temple of Music; Lovanda Baldwin, the artist painter; James Wilson, the great impersonator; the human balloon, who expands his chest to almost three times its natural size; Adine Verona, the human water, and others are on exhibition. A large week's business is assured.

THE ZOO.
Only a fair audience was at the Zoo last night to witness the "our Comet Combination." The performance opened with M. E. Nibbie in character songs. His presentation of the "Crazy Polish Jew" was well received by the audience. Miss Madge Aiston, the glee club dancer, was encoered repeatedly. Callagher and West and the Gray Sisters did very well, as did Charles King, the bass singer. George Murphy and Kittle Well, Dutch comedians, were well received. Vernon and Gilmore took the house by storm. The four cornets do an entirely new and original act, and completely captured the audience. The performance concluded with the laughable farce, "The Court of Appeals." The performance is as good as has been seen at this popular resort for some time. Matinee to-day.

WHITSUNDAY CELEBRATION.

Meeting of the Sunday School Institute of the Episcopal Churches.

St. Paul's Cathedral in this city was crowded to overflowing on Sunday afternoon by a grand gathering of the six Sunday Schools of the Episcopal Church, 800 children, their teachers and friends.

A programme of an exceedingly bright and joyous choral service was distributed through the congregation. The music of the great congregation was led by the united choirs of Christ's, Holy Innocent and Grace Churches, numbering sixty voices, vested in their white cottas. The Episcopal clergy of the city were in the chancel with Bishop Knickerbocker.

The Bishop addressed the parents and superintendents and teachers on the object and aim of the Institute. It was to enforce and strengthen the responsibility of their work and to aid in training them to perform it. These hundreds of children were a great responsibility. They were to be trained up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, to take the places of the fathers and mothers in a few short years in the Church. It was all-important that they should be early instructed in Christian principles and the foundations of a virtuous character be laid that they may act well their part.

Mr. George Cobb followed in a happy address to the children. Altogether it was an interesting and happy occasion to all the children of the city.

Last evening there was a meeting held in the Cathedral Chapel, composed of the teachers, Superintendents and Trustees of the six Sunday-schools, who completed the organization of the Institute, by the adoption of a Constitution, and an address was made by Bishop Knickerbocker.

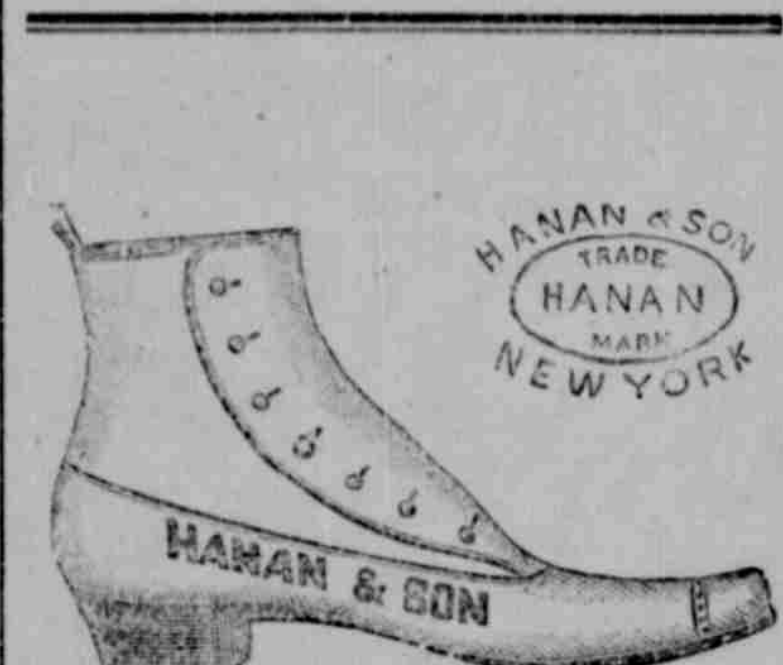

Mr. George Cobb followed in a happy address to the children. Altogether it was an interesting and happy occasion to all the children of the city.

Let it be a Regular Occasion.
George Murray, Esq., is to have a benefit next Saturday evening, and we don't blame him, for they are the latest, in fact all the style, and one might as well be out of the world as out of style. Mr. M. was manager of the Meridian Rink last winter, and his manner of conducting the same made him quite popular with the rinkrattling class. These people smiled and enjoyed themselves, and now comes the opportunity for them to make him smile. It may be the last chance to pay the debt; grasp it and see to it that you help back the building to its utmost capacity.
